

fscom is a boutique firm of compliance experts who specialise in the financial services sector, specifically in payments, e-money, crypto, challenger banks and investment firms.

Established in 2011, fscom is headquartered in Belfast with offices in London and Dublin. fscom has experience assisting firms adhere to the regulatory requirements in the UK, Ireland and multiple European jurisdictions. The team has in-depth industry knowledge from the frontline, having run businesses, headed up global compliance teams, and worked for the regulators. fscom has worked with a lot of companies in the financial services sector and advised in hundreds of projects to include authorisations, audits, advice, training and interim roles.

fscom has won numerous awards for its work with clients in providing advisory and project-based work across three core technical areas, financial crime advisory, regulatory compliance and cyber security.